DAVID MERRETT

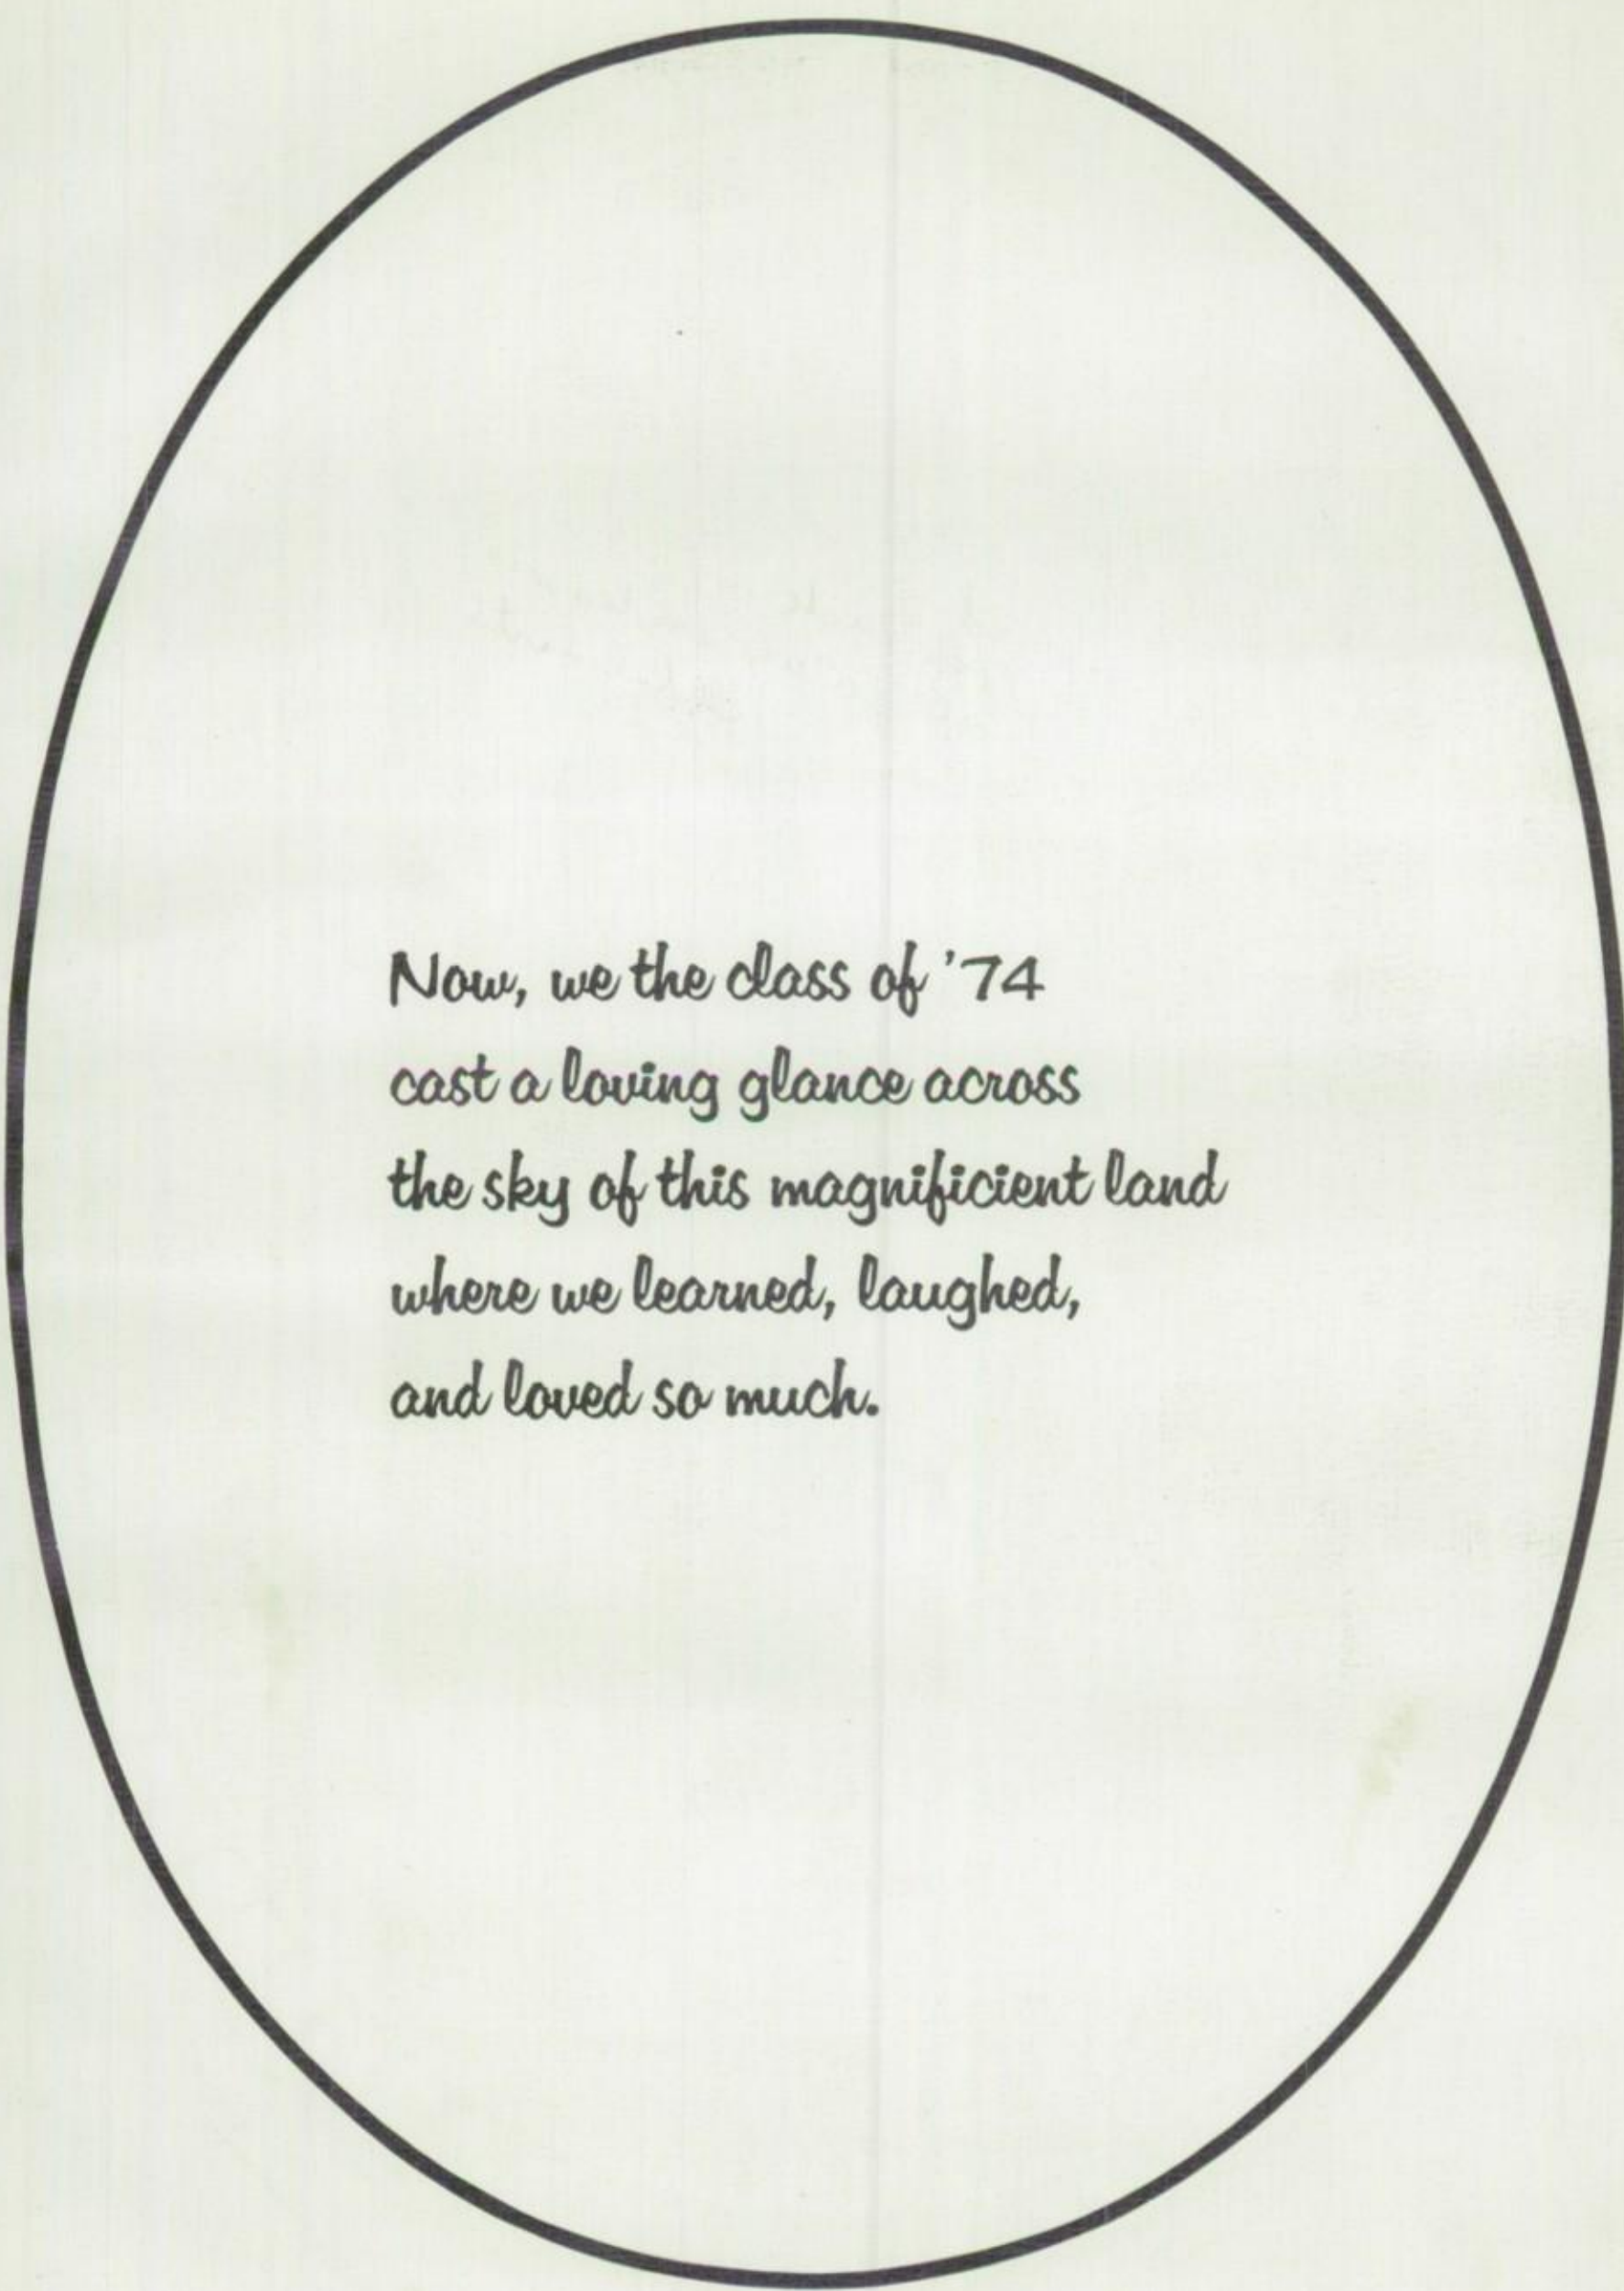

*We opened our eyes
to the warmth and friendliness
of the Pope John horizon . . .*

and we loved what we saw

Now, we the class of '74
cast a loving glance across the sky of this magnificent land
where we learned, laughed,
and loved so much.

We, the Class of 1974,

Cathy Ann Vetrano

Our Gift to You, Lord

God gives us many wondrous gifts
to treasure day by day.
We scarcely know we have them,
until they gently slip away.
These gifts, we give to you, Lord,
knowing that you will see.
That these precious gifts you give to us
made up our Cathy V.
We give you joy, for she had some,
for everyone she knew.
We give you laughter, for her smile
was frequent and so true.
We give you bounds of energy,
for she had more than some.
She had time for everything,
and concern for everyone.
We give you tender beauty,
the kind that grows and grows.
Like the softness of the morning dew
upon the fresh picked rose.
The wonderful gifts which we give
You, Lord, we treasure jealously.
And the most beautiful gift you give us all
is Cathy's memory.
